Can We Afford Not To Pay Our Dues?

Last year, in one of our pleas for Red Cross Funds, we said:

"If there ever is a disaster in Crawford County - and tornadoes have actually hit in counties almost next door to us - it is the American Red Cross who will immediately provide the shelter, food, clothing, medication and other services needed whether the bill is $10,000, $20,000 or $100,000."

It was not intended as a prophecy, although it turned out to be one - for, when the tornado did strike Frederic last April 19th:

It was American Red Cross who was there virtually immediately, and

It was American Red Cross who provided food, clothing, shelter and other needs. Fortunately, by comparison, the disaster was not too extensive and the bill came to only $5,000, but:

It was American Red Cross who paid the bill! A gift to the Frederic victims from all the Good Neighbors of American Red Cross nationwide!

In our hearts, surely we all pray that disaster will never again strike Crawford County, but, are our hearts not eased because we are sure that if disaster does strike again there will be immediate Red Cross help?

Can we afford not to fully support the one organization that provides this kind of help to every American, regardless of race, color or creed, and no matter where disaster strikes?

Let's pay our dues! If you haven't already contributed, won't you send your check, today, for as much as you can?

A public hearing of the 1976 Crawford County Budget will be held at 7:00 p.m. Friday, October 24th, in the County Building.

Floor Plan For Frederic Elementary School

The proposed addition to the new school building in Frederic is designed to replace the functionally obsolete and deteriorated former Frederic High School Building. Faced with the impractical and overwhelming cost of bringing the old building up to state codes for fire safety, health standards, and handicapped students, the Crawford AuSable School Board decided to propose a replacement to the voters.

The above floor plan shows the layout of the proposed replacement consisting of seven classrooms, a gym, a multipurpose room, an office area, and a small room for speech therapy and testing.

The $545,000 price tag will cost the average taxpayer $5.00 annually according to Fraser Dean, School Superintendent.

Parenting Classes Scheduled

A series of six Parent Effectiveness classes is scheduled to begin Tuesday, October 28th, 7:30 - 9:30 p.m. Classes will meet at the Congregational Church in Roscommon.

Planned as a part of the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service Family Living Program, the series will be taught by Merrill Baldwin, Extension Home Economist for Roscommon and Crawford Counties.

According to Ms. Baldwin, "This series will include communications skills that have the potential for enhancing the relationship between parent and child. We concentrate on three skills; listening so children will talk to you, talking so children will listen to you, and a method of resolving conflict so no one loses."

Although the classes are built around communications as a way of warming up family relationships, other topics will be discussed. "There's no way of separating one aspect of parenting from another. Parent-child relationships are so complex that it's impossible to talk about communications without also discussing discipline, acceptance, how children learn, society's influence, and other areas of concern to parents," said Ms. Baldwin.

Texts for the series are "Parent Effectiveness Training" by Dr. Thomas Gordon, and "People-Making" by Virginia Satir. Purchase of the books is not required for the classes. However, they may be available on loan at local libraries.

Commenting on enrollment procedure, Ms. Baldwin said "You may enroll just by coming to class on October 28. Anyone who is a parent or expects to be a parent in the future is invited." Ms. Baldwin continued, "Too often men see classes like this as being for mothers only. Today's pressures on the family require that both Dad and Mom play an active role in raising the children."

As with all extension programs this series is open to all without regard to race, color, or national origin. There is no enrollment fee.

More information about the series is available at the Extension Office in the Roscommon County Building Annex, phone 275-5043.

From Our Corner...

It is a blinger some weeks to come up with something that we feel is important or of interest to our readers from this corner—

And would you believe this is one of those blingers...

But, as we thought about it — there is an important issue confronting the taxpayers of the Crawford-AuSable School District.

Should we, or should we not, replace the antiquated Frederic Elementary School? The voter will have their choice, Tuesday, Nov. 4th.

The people in our county have built an elementary school in Grayling and just recently a new high school, for the school district.

We believe the young students in Frederic deserve a better environment to learn in than what we are offering them today.

Speaking of elections, there is also one in the city of Grayling the same day, Nov. 4th, to fill three vacancies on the City Council. We bring this up to remind only voters in the city, that they will have to cast their ballot at two different locations.

The election, to decide on 3 of 4 candidates for the council, will be held at the city hall and the Frederic School proposal vote will be held at the Grayling Middle School Gym.

Don't Dump Leaves In The Water

By Willard Bosserman
County Extension Director
Every year about this time I feel moved to warn people again not to put leaves in the lake or stream. Leaves pollute.

I see leaves floating down the river from trees that overhang the river. The river can take the natural deposit of leaves, but when it gets additional leaves from people dumping them into the water it becomes over loaded with nutrients. The leaves take oxygen from the water to decompose. The oxygen supply can get too low for fish to live.

It does seem easier to just rake the leaves into the lake or river and forget them, but it does do harm to the body of water.

I would rather have you compost your leaves so you can enrich your flower and vegetable gardens. I realize some of you don't have a place to have a compost pile or don't have a garden. Most people bag up the leaves and have them taken to the landfill.

If you have too many to compost this is the next best method. Burning isn't recommended from at least two stand points, first, the burning causes air pollution. When dense smoke blows across a road or highway it can cause accidents also, another reason for not burning is that many people put the leaves in a road ditch or other drainage ditch, to burn them. The ash is a concentrated source of nutrients. Water running down the ditches carries the concentrated nutrients to the water supply.

District Court

Gary Thomas Mayer, 20, of Waters was bound over to Circuit Court on a charge of assault with intent to murder. A preliminary examination was held and bond was set at $10,000.00 cash / surety. He was arrested on a citizen's complaint September 20.

Adam Leroy Horning, 33, of Grayling, was bound over to Circuit Court on the charges of: assault with intent to do harm less than murder, felonious assault and eluding an officer. He was arrested by City Police September 28. Bond is set at $10,000.00 cash/surety.

Joseph Ambrose Horning, 65, was arrested by City Police October 9 on the charge of disorderly person by intoxication in a public place. He was sentenced to 8 days.

Brian Benedict Quigno, 26, of Grayling, pleaded guilty to a charge of disorderly person by intoxication in a public place. Fine and costs were $64.00 or 7 days in jail. He was arrested by Sheriff's Deputies October 16.

Karen Ruth Tuck, 18, of Rogers City, pleaded guilty to a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. She was sentenced to $204.00 or 14 days in jail. She was arrested by City Police October 16.

John Ronald Groh, 34, of Rhodes, pleaded guilty to the charge of impaired driving. He was sentenced to pay $184.00 or an additional 14 days. He was arrested by City Policemen October 14.

John Ronald Groh, 34, of Rhodes, pleaded guilty to driving while license is suspended. He was sentenced to 3 days in jail and $44.00 or an additional 5 days.

Norman Smock, 18, of Grayling, demanded preliminary examination to assault with intent to do bodily harm less than murder. He was arrested on a citizen's complaint October 10. His bond is set at $500.00.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

The Time Of The End

Since we have discussed the rapture of the church and the coming antichrist of the tribulation period, a natural question comes concerning the exact time these things will take place.

There are two dangerous and unscriptural positions to be avoided, one is date setting and the other is disbelief.

Several years ago there was a church group in southern Indiana called "The Church of Jesus Christ of Prophecy". This charismatic group claimed the first century gifts of the Holy Spirit especially in the area of prophecy, visions and tongues. They began to send out a mimeographed paper giving the latest news on what God had revealed to them. Soon the local newspapers were carrying the story about these people who were selling their earthly property and moving into a cave because God had told them of the exact time of His return. It is no wonder the world laughed in scorn as the day and hour passed with nothing happening.

The second danger, disbelief, was prophesied by Peter - "Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, and saying, Where is the promise of his coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation."

II Peter 3:3,4. Most unsaved people do not believe in the end of this present world, or the second coming of Jesus Christ. Satan has done an effective work of deception in the areas of date setting and disbelief. The disciples asked Jesus when the end of the world and His second coming would take place, Matthew 24:3. After giving them a description with signs of the end days, Jesus said, "But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no not even the angels of heaven, but my Father only," Matthew 25:36. Even at His ascension Jesus told His disciples that the times and seasons of His future kingdom were not for them to know, Acts 1:6,7. From these words of Jesus it should be clear to all Bible believing people that date setting concerning the coming of the day of the Lord is not of God; but is of the Devil.

The late Dr. M. R. DeHaan, founder and teacher of the Radio Bible Class, had a sign on his desk which read, "Maybe Today". This is the kind of balance each Christian should have concerning the second coming of Jesus Christ. We should live in anticipation and hope of His soon return.

The most important question we can ask each day, however, does not concern the readiness of Christ to return, but rather our readiness to meet Him at His coming. (adv.)

Open House For The Rev. Haskels

Rev. Robert Haskel and his wife Joyce held an Open House for the congregation of St. John Lutheran Church on Sunday, October 19. They moved into their very own new home in early September.

Cookies and coffee were served and a tour of the premises completed the afternoon. Becky was co-hostess with her mother at the coffee table.

They were given a tree to plant in the front yard, lots of goodies for the cupboard and many wishes for happiness for the Haskel family.

Debra Sue Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell F. Williams of Bonita Springs, Fla. was wed August 30 to Richard Charles Poklemba, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Poklemba of Fort Myers, Florida. The bride is a former "Miss Bonita Springs". She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Roy McEvers of Lake Margrethe, Grayling, and the late Melvin J. Ide.

Reverend Christopher Gaynor of Cape Coral performed the nuptial mass at St. Leo Catholic Church.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of white with a full length veil and carried a bouquet of two dozen white roses.

Maid of honor was Patty White; bridesmaids were Gayel Williams, sister-in-law of the bride, Kristy and Trish Brant, Lee Ann and Dora Poklemba, the groom's nieces.

"Main Stream Musing"

Secrets of Success

[By Jaymee Seidel]

Getting on in life is a fairly simple matter. At least the language is full of bits of advice which are supposed to assure us of reaching our goals. Trouble is, the wise guys never tell you what will really happen if you follow the advice.

"Keep your ear to the ground and let me know what you hear," is a classic bit of advice. With your ear to the ground, you'll admit you would be in no position to inspire the confidence of anybody who had something really important to tell. What's worse, you would probably be the butt of all sorts of practical jokes. You might incite passersby to leapfrog of playful kicks, and you could wind up with some really interesting complications, like a slipped disc or an earful of ants.

Another good one is, "Put your shoulder to the wheel." Golly, tire burns on your trench coat might be the least of your worries, if you do this. What if the wheel turned in reverse? I don't care if you are in love with your Toyota, who could survive having it run over your shoulder?

"Keep your nose to the grindstone." There may be more to this one than meets the ear. The person giving the advice may be hinting that you really need a nose job. This is cheaper than plastic surgery and might work all right if you are wishing for a pug nose, but I believe the subtle styles are pretty hard to achieve this way.

And how about, "Keep your eye on the ball"? With your ear to the ground, it is hard to do this except in the early moments of each hole of golf or when meeting a low ground ball in tennis. Your eye, being round, will keep rolling off the ball anyway, so this is one of the hardest bits of wisdom to live by.

While bearing all of these in mind, we are also told to keep our chins up. With your shoulder to the wheel, maybe you could rest your chin on the back bumper and still keep one ear to the ground...if you are a contortionist. Or if you interpret the wheel to mean a steering wheel, you could, by pressing your shoulder against it firmly, prop your chin up on the top of it. Don't be surprised, though, if a kindly policeman suggests you had better off with one of those cars made for the handicapped.

The final bit of wisdom usually delivered is that if you will follow the adviser's advice, you'll have "a leg up" in the situation, whatever it may be. Now a leg up is, presumably, a good thing to have. It implies that you are a step farther than the next fellow up the ladder of success, or even about to mount the winning race horse. But somehow for me, it always brings to mind visions of puppies and tire hydrants...Ah well, back to the salt mines.

COOR Reading Council

"Have fun with the language experience", "anchor ideas in personal experience", "let the youngsters have the experience of being authors so they can associate with the concept of books".

These are some of the beliefs of Dr. Harry Hahn, guest speaker at the October meeting of the COOR Reading Council. As Director of the Learning Strategy Center at Oakland University, Dr. Hahn has gained national attention for his work with the Young Author's Conference. From his years of work with young people, Dr. Hahn had much to offer his audience in the form of firsthand experience and student-made materials.

Listing the components of the reading process as recognition, stimulation, and security, Dr. Hahn illustrated his definition with some simulation exercises.

The lessons were those he successfully uses with K-6 grade level students. Geared toward hearing patterns in and making associations with the sounds and meanings of words, the lessons are designed to help the learner expand his or her experience with language.

One of the tenets of education is that books mean little if they do not or cannot relate to experience or "real life". Dr. Harry Hahn brings that tenet to life in his work with Young Authors.

The next meeting of the COOR Reading Council will be November 1, 1975, when Elaine Boyd of the Traverse City Schools will present a make-and-take workshop.

This will be a chance for teachers looking for ideas to examine and reproduce materials for their classrooms. Details of time and place will be released in following announcements.

your week ahead BY DR. A.W. DAMIS

- Forecast Period: October 26 to November 1
- ARIES
Mar. 21-Apr. 19
No one, that is, no one intentionally, recruits enemies. Your attitude, however, this week, could be peculiar—to put it mildly.
- TAURUS
Apr. 20-May 20
Problems with a co-worker or an associate, seems to be in the scheme of things. You'll have only yourself to blame. It's "buck passing time."
- GEMINI
May 21-June 20
Hangups about luxuries, are highly probable. Actually, as your spirits soar—so will your urge to spend. Watch your budget.
- MOONCHILD
June 21-July 22
You're heading toward the "worry circle trap." Remember, there are situations and events over which you have no control. Furthermore, you're a little over sensitive.
- LEO
July 23-Aug. 22
One way or another, you'll be pinch hitting. At the very least, you'll utilize a past experience. It's highly probable that you'll hear that a new project is on the way.
- VIRGO
Aug. 23-Sept. 22
By way of telephone, the mail or even through a third party—there should be surprising news. Actually, you're due for a lucky break.
- LIBRA
Sept. 23-Oct. 22
Listen closely. Whatever you do—keep a "get rich scheme" at arms length; neither lend nor borrow money. Someone is up to financial mischief.
- SCORPIO
Oct. 23-Nov. 21
Many under your sign will receive help from a member of the opposite sex. There will be strings attached. This week, think twice before you ask for favors.
- SAGITTARIUS
Nov. 22-Dec. 21
It's a day when you can do no wrong. Put your hand on the lever—pull—and you'll hit the jackpot. This cosmic cycle offers many opportunities.
- CAPRICORN
Dec. 22-Jan. 19
You have a task ahead that's without pleasure. But, you'll do it well—even your enemies will admit to that. There's resistance to your job, task or project.
- AQUARIUS
Jan. 20-Feb. 18
There's all sorts of information coming your way—most of it has little value. In fact, someone is trying to "cross your wires." Stellar patterns indicate excessive gossip.
- PISCES
Feb. 19-Mar. 20
You should do well with persons in authority. Incidentally, tell your mate or similar alliance—to watch what they sign. Someone close might have legal entanglements.

State, local units trail in confidence

Quick now, folks, answer this question: Which is your favorite branch of government? Is it federal, state or local?

If you answered that your favorite branch of government is that which is furthest away—that is, the federal government—then most Americans agree with you.

According to a recent poll by the Advisory Commission on Intergovernmental Relations, Americans generally say they get more for their tax money from the federal government than from state and local branches.

The federal government was favored by 38 percent of those polled, while about 25 percent named local government and state government brought up the rear in confidence with only 20 percent.

The commission noted that the 38 percent confidence vote for Uncle Sam was higher than the 29 percent recorded a year ago, and attributed the increase mainly to "the end of the Watergate crisis and the related upswing in public confidence in the Presidency."

This finding ripples a little, of course, those of us who subscribe generally to the theory that most efficient government is that which is closest at hand. We're in the minority, it seems.

Along about the same time I read about the grass roots favoring the federal government, I came across a plea by former California Gov. Ronald Reagan to cut both federal taxes and federal spending.

Reagan sure sounds like a serious candidate for the White House, and his tax-and-spending cut speech in Chicago was in the candidacy vein.

According to the reports I read, Reagan proposed a $25 billion federal income tax cut next year, and a $90 billion cut in federal spending. He claimed his proposed spending cut would wipe out current deficits in federal budgets and still leave enough extra money in the federal treasury to reduce the national debt by $5 billion.

So far, the Reagan plan sounds fine. But how can such magic be done?

Reagan said his proposed cuts could be achieved by transferring authority "in whole or in part" from the federal government back to local government in areas such as welfare, education, housing, food stamps, medical care and community development.

This turn-back may be where the rub comes in. Reagan is not really proposing a cut in spending, or in taxing. What he's really suggesting is that the federal government pull its support away from several present programs—and hand the ball back to local units of government.

If the total burden of taxes were to be lowered a la Reagan, the local government would have to turn off the public spigots in welfare, education, housing, medical care, and so on.

The only way government can reduce spending is by cutting services...by trimming programs...by firing employees.

The record of government—federal, state or local—is not outstanding in the areas of reducing. As governor of California, Reagan delighted in being tight-fisted, especially in areas of welfare and education, and I guess he was. But I would bet that today the California budget in these areas is higher than it was before the Reagan economies; that's just the way government works.

Shifting responsibility won't cut government spending. The Reagan plan only switches the monkey from one governmental back to another.

Even so, it's unlikely Reagan's ideas would be acceptable in Washington.

How do you suppose, for example, that the federal government earned its place so high in the hearts and the confidence of its clientele, as indicated in the survey cited at the beginning of this essay. It wasn't by reducing spending, but rather, because of enlarged governmental activities and more liberal purse openings.

It seems to me we're dangerously close to the position where more voters receive benefits from government than contribute to government's existence.

From that point, it's all downhill, folks.

Autumn poet is screened

The poet in me is awakened annually as the summer changes into autumn clothes, the morning frost paints sparkling pictures on the lawn, and my wife tells me to take down the screen porch.

The screen porch is really a carport. But long ago my wife decided our car didn't need summer shelter as badly as she needed a place to pile wicker. She hired an old man to enclose the space in 4 huge screens, 2 of which he removed every October to let the Plymouth in. Then he would return in June to put the 2 huge screens back up, and so on, year after year, inevitable as a hiccup.

Behind his back I called him "Mr. Harbinger." I never met him face to face. He probably thought my wife was a widow, a contrived misconception shared by all repairmen who visit our home. Whenever they show up, I hide behind a locked door and whimper into a pillow. I'm ashamed I'm so mechanically inept. I once tried to turn down a thermostat by shouting NO! at it. I whimper because I know I'll never be able to do as much for my own children as I've done for the plumber's children.

Anyway, after many years there came an autumn when the hiccup didn't hic. Mr. Harbinger, as old men are wont to do, died. After a suitable period of mourning, my wife announced that if an 88-year-old retiree could put a screen porch up and take it down, so could a healthy, 35-year-old newspaperman, even if he was me. At which point the period of mourning was extended interminably.

The job has been mine for about 15 years now. I have never licked it, but I have learned how to live with it. Proper preparation is of paramount importance. Last Saturday was a typical takedown...

Before touching a screen, I had to haul the TV to the porch window and position it precariously on a pile of books so I could see the baseball play-offs from every rung of my ladder.

I had to park the car properly so I could hear the Michigan State - Notre Dame football game on the car radio while unscrewing screws.

I had to find my winter gloves. Even in warm weather, I must wear the gloves so I won't scrape my knuckles on the huge screens while unscrewing and/or screwing. Before I hit upon the glove idea, my knuckles were permanently scabby. I could always tell when autumn or spring was approaching, because my knuckles would just be starting to heal. Once I half-jokingly called my most prominent knuckle "Mr. Harbinger" which greatly intensified that portion of my interminable period of mourning, sending me to my whimper pillow.

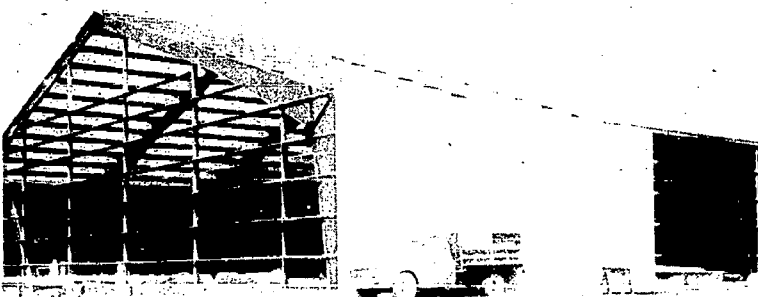

But the most important part of my preparation is mental. Just before taking screwdriver in hand, I had to squat quietly in a corner with my head between my knees and practice transcendental meditation. My mantra, repeated for 10 minutes, always goes like this: "I promise, promise, promise not to lose my temper and swear when I find I cannot get the screwdriver into a screw because my bleep-bleep wife has painted over the bleeping screwhead. Also I promise, promise, promise never to turn my back on a completely unscrewed screen."

An hour later I forgot. One of the huge screens couldn't be freed because 2 screws had disappeared completely under my wife's incessant paintbrush. I turned to yell this delightful news to my wife who was in the kitchen painting the silverware. A sudden wind caught the other huge screen, which was completely unscrewed, and forced it to fall snugly on my shoulders, leaving my scraped head sticking through the hole it had just made.

At that point my daughter stuck her smart face in front of the baseball play-offs and said, "Smile, you're on Candid Camera!"

I returned to my squat corner and hollered for my whimper pillow.

Construct Indoor Tennis Facility At West Branch

Construction of West Branch's new 15,000 square foot indoor tennis facility is ahead of schedule. Northeastern Michigan's first such recreational facility will be completely closed in this week and work has begun on the interior service area. The final work of applying three layers of a rubberized cushion playing surface by tennis court specialists should be completed and the facility open by November 15.

In order to acquaint area residents of all ages with the new facility and tennis, several weekends of free clinics in December have been scheduled. An application form appears in this newspaper in a tennis club ad.

Despite the high cost of constructing such facilities, club owners have established the lowest rates known in the State to make the game available to as many residents as possible. The daytime play rate of $6.00 per hour costs each individual only $1.50 when playing doubles.

Superintendent's Corner

(By Fraser Dean)

A recent radio commentary on the School Board's discussion of the possible operation of the ski facilities at Bear Mountain has stirred up quite a controversy. I would like to set the record straight regarding that discussion and the nature of the School Board's involvement.

Presently, the ski facilities are being run on a temporary basis by a consortium of representatives from the City of Grayling, Grayling Township, Crawford AuSable Schools, and Crawford County Chamber of Commerce. I stress the TEMPORARY status of this group because the federal court that is attempting to resolve this very complex issue has not made a final disposition regarding the ski facilities.

The court's generosity in allowing the current group to run the park is influenced greatly by the fact that it's run by representatives of governmental entities that allow voters a means of access to its operation. Obviously the court does not want the park to fall into the hands of profit minded enterprises over whom the local residents have no control.

The simplest and most efficient way for a long term solution to the problem of who is going to operate the ski facility that would insure voter control over its operation would be the appointment of a commission similar to the Grayling Housing Commission that operates AuSable Acres.

Any governmental unit such as the City, the County, the School district, or the Township may form a commission and appoint or remove its members. The appointing unit (such as the school) would have absolutely no liability financial or otherwise nor would it have to commit any money. The sole involvement would be to appoint members or remove them.

If the residents became dissatisfied with the operation of the ski park, they would have access to the commission through the board, or council or whatever the appointing agency is.

This is what was explained at the last meeting of the school board, solely for the Board's information.

No proposals were made, no action was taken nor is any anticipated until there has been a great deal of upset from the community a great deal of consideration by the Board and (most important) until the Board has been requested by the Grayling Winter Sports Association to actually make such a consideration.

FIRE EQUIPMENT DEMONSTRATED—On Tuesday afternoon, October 14, the Grayling Fire Department and the Department of Natural Resources brought 4 pieces of fire fighting equipment to the Grayling Elementary School. They gave a very meaningful demonstration of how their equipment operates. The pictures shown are portions of Mrs. Larson's and Mrs. Nicholas' First Grade classes viewing some of the equipment on display.

NATURE STUDY

In our class, we made bouquets of dried weeds. Mrs. Wilcox showed us how to arrange them. She told us to put our favorite and tallest on top and build around it. One of our more unusual science experiments was making tree diaries. First we picked our favorite tree, then we wrote about its turning stage right down to the very end.

(by Margine Lozon &amp; Star Rogers)

READING CLUB

Dawn Weaver has been elected president of the "Reading Ten Club." Dianne Goudle was elected vice-president. Members of the "Reading Ten Club" have a meeting each week. They make things, like book markers and easy books, for our friends in Mrs. McEvers' room. Everyone is working hard to become a member.

MOVIE MAKERS

Children in Mrs. Hawkin's and Mrs. Ingvarsson's group made a movie to show to the parents at the October Open House. The subject is the new "Success" program and how it operates in the classroom.

NEW BOOKS

Fifty-five new books arrived for our library. These books include series of Peanuts, Disney, and Sesame Street readers. We hope these fascinating books will motivate children to read more. The "Peanuts" series is the feature of the week. Every child is encouraged to check out a book suitable for U.S.S.R.

MANY WAYS TO LEARN

Numbers can be fun as well as useful, to the five year old child. In Mrs. McEvers' group, we have been learning poems, singing songs, playing games, and doing exercises for the numerals 4, 5 and 6. We are also learning to write and make sets for these numerals.

Children in Mrs. Hawkin's class have been working hard at their centers. They have been doing a lot of alphabet work, beginning to read in first readers, and making art projects for the fall season and Halloween.

WE'RE BUSY BEAVERS

Mrs. Ingvarsson's group will have some helpers this year. Mrs. Caid will come in on Tuesday to help in our room. On Wednesday, Mrs. Henion will work in our room.

The kids made up rules for the playground because there were some problems at recess.

We really like U.S.S.R. Mrs. Ingvarsson brought in some acorns and we are writing stories about them.

We are making writing pictures for Halloween. We can't wait for our Halloween party.

We are working hard in our centers, but we're having fun too. (by the class)

TOURS

The bond issue for our new school will be November 4th. If you would like to tour the Frederic School and see plans for the proposed building, call for an appointment. Mr. Skoglund will be happy to schedule an afternoon tour for you or your group.

The Bicentennial is having "glorious" effects on our own school environment. Several teachers classrooms are decorated with pride in remembrance of the Red, White and Blue freedom our forefathers preserved for us. Mrs. Lattimer's sixth grade has a special "Bicentennial Bulletin Board" which a different student works on each week. The faculty here at the Middle School has a special Bicentennial Committee to be responsible for ordering Bicentennial materials and keeping the hallways decorated in the spirit of '76. The Home Economics classes are working on a puffed quilt in Red, White and Blue, to honor the Bicentennial.

The Middle School Student Council has purchased a professional sign maker kit to help all classes and grades in making posters and signs to keep us updated and fired up for activities around our school. This was made possible through the proceeds from our last school party.

Mrs. Johnson's fifth grade class is practicing a Halloween play and are getting ready to start multiplication in their math classes. They are currently in the process of learning the 50 states and where their capitals are.

Mrs. Prause's fifth grade class is doing creative writing instead of regular English and it's fun to be able to express yourself more freely.

Mrs. Lattimer's class is studying Ancient History and each student is required to do a project on different periods of civilization, which they will display in the library. They will be starting quilting as art projects soon.

The Middle School is starting a "Popcorn Day" every Tuesday. Popcorn will be on sale for 25 cents a bag and will be sold during lunch hours. Students will take an active part in making, distributing and selling the popcorn.

Happiness is Volunteering

You don't have to be a teacher to see a child's whole face light up when he reads a word correctly for the first time. You don't even have to be a mother to feel the glow that comes from having helped him do it. All you have to be is a volunteer with the Crawford AuSable Schools.

A volunteer is anyone with a bit of free time to give. Trained teachers guide you, show you how to work with each child. Your importance is in being there, in providing the incentive of extra attention that may make all the difference. Such a little thing to give ... your presence. But you may help give a child the ability to read. Where will he be without it? And what might he not become, with it?

The rewards are many. Try walking into your town's school and having a child greet you with a smiling, "Hi, reading teacher!" Try going down its hallways and meeting more little faces that recognize yours and little voices that say your name. Their eyes will say, "I did something important, and you were there." "I'm learning, and it's partly thanks to you." "I'm becoming somebody, because you care."

But reading is only part of the volunteer program. You may help preserve manners and morals as a lunchroom helper, or teach a child how to use the library as a library aide. You say you'd love to, but you could only spare an hour a week in the middle of a day? Perfect. We have at least a dozen spots for you right now. Call your school today and volunteer. A child is waiting for your call.

Juniors Travel Abroad

Applications for students going overseas during the summer of 1976 as Youth for Understanding Foreign Exchange students are being accepted by Chris Smith, counselor at Grayling High School. The deadline for applying has been set for October 29, at which time the committee will review all applications so that students may apply for a country and family. Students who are accepted can begin making payments toward the trip's cost at that time. Only juniors from Grayling High School will be accepted for the '76 program. Anyone wanting information on the program may contact Miss Smith.

Our Class Trip to the Avalanche

Mrs. Bovee's 4th grade class took a walk down to the Crawford County Avalanche, Friday, October 10 at 1:00 p.m. It took about 1 hour to get there, see everything, and get back. We saw Kathie, a girl who worked there, work the compugraphic. She wrote some stories that a few people in our class wrote and let them proofread it. We saw how Mr. Madsen made the newspaper. And he gave us each a piece of lead that he didn't use. Gayle, another girl that works there, gave us a little card and she stamped it. Kathie let us use the compugraphic to write our name. Then she gave them to us. Everybody liked it very much!

Second grade—Mrs. Williams
We have been studying about a Dairy Farm. We learned about milking machines, how milk has to be kept cool, how it is put in cartons, and about all of the things we get from milk. We had a contest to see who could make the best cows out of clay. Our winners were Casey Adams and Tim Stephan.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK OBSERVED

In observance of National Fire Prevention Week the second grade students in Mrs. Knibb's room received Red Ball stickers to be placed on their bedroom windows. The stickers were obtained through the courtesy of Charles Flick. In times of disaster the stickers denote to rescuers which rooms contain children or physically handicapped persons. Various aspects of fire prevention were discussed.

Attend The Church Of Your Choice

SHE NEEDS HELP

Her brother realizes that. And so do my wife and I... most of the time. But sometimes Sunday mornings mean a ride in the country... sleeping late... receiving guests. Something, every Sunday. Then one day, watching her trying to read, I realized that filling her mind and heart and soul is a continuous process. It can't be restricted to days of the week. So Sundays in church have become part of our life style. We all are finding new insights, strengthening our faith, discovering ourselves and God. Our little girl needs help. To this Christian family that's the understatement of the year!

Traverse City State Hospital Planning Now for Christmas

It may seem a bit early to begin planning for Christmas, but not if you had to plan for over 600 people, as does Traverse City State Hospital. A great amount of time and effort in behalf of the hospital's patient population are required to insure a "Merry Christmas" for all patients. It takes time for clubs and civic organizations, churches and schools to formulate plans in order to participate in the Christmas effort at the hospital.

Organizations within the 34-county area assigned to the institution are invited to begin now to make plans to take part in the Christmas activities for Traverse City State Hospital's patients. Volunteers will begin wrapping gifts on November 12, and the hospital would like to receive as many of the gifts as possible by that date. Gifts should not arrive later than December 9, 1975. The sorting and wrapping of all gifts must be completed by December 20.

Each year we obtain lists of all patients on all wards on which their needed or desired items are indicated. We try to provide gifts on the basis of this list as much as possible, but can do so only if the gifts arrive early enough.

Gifts do not have to be expensive, but they must be new. Civic groups, churches, clubs, schools and individuals are cordially invited to take part in the 1975 Christmas program. It is suggested that some of the men's service organizations concentrate on gifts for men, school children on gifts for children, etc. Gifts should not be wrapped, and we are asking that you include gift wrapping paper, ribbon, etc. this year. Such items as toiletries for both men and women, inexpensive items of clothing for all ages, from seven years to ninety, books, games, puzzles, smoking materials, fruit, candies, etc., are suggested.

Additional information can be obtained by contacting the Community Relations Department, Box C, Traverse City, Michigan, 49684. Gifts sent to the hospital should be addressed in the same way, and should include the name and address of the club, organization or individual.

Call First Before Visit To SS Office

Make it a little easier on yourself the next time you have social security business, said Dale Averill, District Manager of the Traverse City Social Security office. Next time, try calling and perhaps save yourself a trip to the office. Our phone number is 946-8360.

Sometimes it is necessary to visit the office, said Averill, so here are some tips to help time your visit to avoid inconvenience.

Call first, and if all our lines are busy, chances are, so is the office. If your business isn't urgent, wait and try again later.

Monday is our busiest day, so to avoid a crowd, try coming another day. Many people come to the office first thing in the morning, so come a little later in the day to avoid the early bird rush.

Another really busy time is the beginning of each month when people get their checks. For example, during the first 2 weeks of September, a total of 9 working days, 1185 people visited the Traverse City office in person and another 2000 people telephoned us. So if your business isn't urgent, you probably would be served faster if you contact us later in the month.

However, if you must call or visit our office during a peak period, please be patient. We are trying as hard as we can to serve the needs of each person, and we'll be making every effort to get to you as soon as possible.

We offer this advice out of concern for you and others who come to our office. We want to serve you better and these tips will help you to help us in doing that.

Save money in your attic this winter.

Insulate!

At the direction of the Michigan Public Service Commission, Michigan Consolidated is again offering a low-cost home ceiling insulation program designed to conserve Natural Gas and hold down heating costs.

Last year, nearly 42,400 Michigan Consolidated customers installed ceiling insulation, saving over one billion cubic feet of Natural Gas, and cut their home heating costs by up to 17%.

Enough Natural Gas was conserved to heat over 7,600 additional homes this winter.

If you still haven't taken advantage of this easy, low-cost program, now's the time to act. Many homeowners can install insulation themselves for about $125. Our free handbook tells you how. Get your copy at any Michigan Consolidated Business Office, most building supply outlets or write or call us.

Or, we can have the job done for you by one of our participating subcontractors and add the cost to your monthly gas bills. The cost? About $250 for homes with less than 1,000 sq. ft. of ceiling area. You can pay cash. Or, you can pay over an extended period at an interest rate of 1% monthly on the unpaid balance. (ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE OF 12%.)

So why not save money in your attic this winter with our low-cost ceiling insulation program? You'll be cutting your heating costs up to 17% and helping our country conserve its Natural Gas supplies, too.

Hunting & Fishing Report

[by "Skip" Madsen]

It is that time of year when the annual exodus from Grayling to Wyoming, Colorado, Montana and other western states takes place for their hunting season out there.

Shown above is Randy Calkins, of Grayling with a 7-point Mule Deer Buck that dressed out at about 200 pounds. There were nine in the group, and good success was reported by all on their 10-day trip.

Duck Hunting here is getting better with the colder weather setting in.

Trapping season opened last Saturday in the Upper Peninsula, and that is where I will be!

Salmon fishing is really getting good now, with Harrisville and Cheboygan being the hot spots.

JV's Lose To Petoskey

[By Kurt Larson]

A larger and very physical Petoskey JV squad soundly defeated the Grayling junior varsity 44-0 in an injury-plagued game on October 16.

The Vikings gave up 30 points in the first half along with half of their own starting lineup to injuries. Quarterback, Scott Johnston; center, Craig Stewart; tackle, Brian Ruddy; Tailback, Sherm Holey; flanker, Chris Austin; linebacker, Bill Hartig; and safety, Jamie Cox all were out of the lineup before halftime with various injuries.

Grayling was totally outmanned from then on, with only 13 players physically able to play. Coaches Charles Mires and Dave Ferguson had to re-position many players just to fill the vacancies on the field, such as moving fullback Dave Lepsy to guard and end Bill O'Mara into the quarterback slot.

Lepsy made several outstanding defensive hits during the game and ended up with eight solo tackles and 10 assists. John Herrick and O'Mara were also in on the defensive action. Jeff Barker, Steve Byce, Lepsy and O'Mara each recovered a fumble from the Northmen. Byce also blocked a Petoskey field goal attempt.

Coach Mires said he was pleased with the poise of the remaining players in the game, despite the final score and the number of injuries, and hoped their injured team-mates would be healed and ready to play when the JV's bring their 2-5 record home this Thursday against Boyne City.

best ball club we have played this year, but I was not impressed by their last minute scoring, coach Mike Wieland said. "we had kids in the ball game that were second string, and conceded the fact the game was lost with over 2 minutes left, but they used up all their time outs, and left their first unit in just to run up the score, and the only reason I can understand is to possibly enhance their state rating," Wieland added.

In other league action, Charlevoix shutout Boyne City, 19-0; St. Ignace edged Cheboygan, 21-14; and Rogers City kept Gaylord winless, 12-0.

Cross - Country All Conference

yet, call the Center (348-9314) and tell us so we can have an accurate count for the dinner. (The ladies are funny that way, they want to know how many to cook for) and they'll be serving up a delicious roast beef dinner and you know how good they can cook!

Stop by early for some punch to wet your appetite and stay as long as you want, as long as we quit by midnight, dancing to the music of the Genesee County Senior Citizen Orchestra. Remember how good they were last spring or if you don't, come and see what a good time you can have. Tickets are $7.00 single and $13.00 a couple. See you there.
